Something Old . . . Something New

The beginning of our new home.

Great expectations of the new school guided students through a rough three week:

Anyone interested in being a Student Librarian . . . .

Darn, I wish I could remember that new combination.

The New PHS is Dedicated

Dedication ceremonies were held for the new school. Many parents and friends attended and enjoyed the open house which followed. The High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Linda Beth Sprague, entertained our many visitors.

After a short orientation, students became accustomed to the new school.

The Class Of '71 Looks Back

As we end our High School years, we remember many nights of study and days of daze.

To guide us through our first year in High School, we elected Gary Stuhlman as our Freshman President. Our other officers were: Larry Stuhlman, Vice-President; Carol Donelson, Secretary-Treasurer; and Linda Lieurance and John Bross, Student Council Representatives.

Linda Logan was chosen as our Barnwarming attendant. Liza Dooley reigned as Queen of the annual Junior High Sweetheart Dance. Attendants to her were Julie Boettcher and Lenore Whiston.

We returned to P.H.S. as sophomores in the fall of 1968. This year Jo Freeze was elected President, with Sarah Foreman as Vice-President and Rhonda Buckwalter as Secretary-Treasurer. Julie Boettcher and Jan Donelson were our Student Council Representatives. Our class float in the Homecoming parade, "Sock it to 'em", won second place. Queen attendants at Homecoming were Linda Lieurance; at Barnwarming, Lenore Whiston; at the Basketball Tournament, Sarah Foreman; and Mary Yeager was Sweetheart Queen. Jo Freeze was selected to attend the Sophomore Pilgrimage.

As Juniors, we were faced with several opportunities to make lasting decisions. As our officers, we elected John Head, President; Sarah Foreman, Vice-President; Liza Dooley, Secretary; Julie Boettcher, Treasurer, and, to represent us in the Student Council, Gail Hallgren and John Scholl. Evelyn Yackley was the high seller in the magazine sales. "Tigers are like tissues--East to dispose of" was the title of our prize-winning float. We got second place with it, and we got first place with Sarah Foreman, who was elected to reign as Queen. Our attendants to the Queens this year were: Julie Boettcher, Barnwarming; Liza Dooley and Gail Hallgren, Basketball; and Liza Dooley, Sweetheart. Joy Drebes and Pam Fortner attended Girls State, and John Head attended Boys State. Sarah Foreman, Evelyn Yackley, and Mark Fuqua attended the Youth Leadership Seminar. Ours was the last class to have the old crest in our class rings. The theme of our Prom was "Moonlight Oasis" and Carol Donelson and Gary Stuhlman were co-chairmen.

We started our Senior year at the Middle School, shifting to rooms that were not in use by the Middle School students. But, after three weeks, we moved to the New High School. To start the year out right, we elected a good slate of officers. These were: John Head, President; Jan Donelson, Vice-President; Carol Donelson, Secretary; and Julie Boettcher, Treasurer. Class representatives to the Student Council were Jo Freeze and Gary Stuhlman.

Our Searchlight Editor was Jo Freeze. Liza Dooley was assistant editor, Kathy Brockschmidt, Business Manager, and John Head, Photographer. Dianna House was our Homecoming Queen, with Gail Hallgren as her attendant. Marcia Blickhan was Barnwarming Queen, and Dianna House was her attendant. Senior Basketball attendants were Gail Hallgren, Joyce Dodd, and Mary Yeager. Linda Logan was Sweetheart Queen.

Searchlight King and Queen were Rickey Lewis and Jo Freeze, and their attendants were Liza Dooley and Lee Nill, and Evelyn Yackley and Roger Norfolk.

The night of Commencement we left on the Senior Trip. We stopped at such places as the Henry Ford museum, Niagara Falls, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, and Washington, D.C.

We leave the halls of the new P.H.S. building with both regret and happiness, looking to the future with hope and excitement. Our many memories of the last four years will be cherished throughout our lives.

Seniors pack picnic lunch for the last day of school.

Seniors Stuhlman and Stuhlman participate in Student Council Twirp Week Activities.

PHS Students Show Off At Science Fairs

Palmyra science students really put our school on the map this year with their projects. Most of the young scientists exhibited at two or three fairs, and John Head represented Palmyra at five fairs, including the International Science and Engineering Fair in Kansas City, Mo. Among the students whose projects were recognized as superior were: Lorri Snodgrass, John Head, Lounell Snodgrass, Gary Schaeffer, Linda Meyer, Ann Happel, Brenda Brockschmidt, Vicky Reiff, and Jim Sutton. Congratulations to all these students and their sponsors!

Palmyra 17 Paris 0

On the first play that Palmyra had the ball on offense, Larry Stuhlman ran 95 yards for a touchdown, setting a new school record for the longest run from scrimmage. Larry scored another touchdown on a 30 yard run. Jan Donelson kicked both extra points and kicked a 24 yard field goal.

Palmyra 0 Monroe City 0

Annually, this is a hard-played football game for both teams. It is also looked forward to by many fans. Although neither team won or lost, Palmyra had the ball inside Monroe's 10-yard line twice. They had only one turnover which was on a fumble, and missed a 30-yard field goal in the last minute of the game. Monroe City only crossed Palmyra's 35-yard line once.

Palmyra 42 Bowling Green 6
John Scholl and Larry Stuhlman lead the Panthers to a convincing victory by each rushing for 100 yards. The scoring was done by Larry Stuhlman on a 1 and a 59 yard run, John Scholl on a 5 yard run, Bob Heimer on a quarterback sneak for 55 yards, Brownie Rothweiler on a 2 yard run, Eddie Hess on a 35 yard pass play from Bob Heimer, and Jan Donelson kicking for 4 of 5 points.

Palmyra 26 Knox County 8
Knox County was a team widely known for its passing attack, but Palmyra held them to only 3 completions in 12 attempts and 2 interceptions, one each by Steve Gottman and Gary Sublette. Larry Stuhlman scored 3 touchdowns on 1, 2, and 3 yard runs. Bob Heimer scored the fourth touchdown on an 11 yard run. Jan Donelson kicked 2 of 4 extra points.

Palmyra 0 South Shelby 36
Palmyra's Homecoming plans were not as happy as expected. At this time, we played the number one ranked team that later became State Champs. Palmyra, however, held the Cardinals to the second lowest point total of the year. The defense was lead by Gary Sublette, Dale Welch, and Steve Gottman.

Palmyra 46 Mark Twain 22
Palmyra traveled to Mark Twain to get revenge. For the past 3 years they have defeated us. Larry Stuhlman scored 2 touchdowns on 59 and 70 yard runs and gained 198 yards in 20 carries. Danny Meyers also scored two touchdowns on passes from Bob Heimer from 7 and 30 yards. Eddie Hess also pulled in a pass for a 35 yard touchdown and John Scholl scored the last touchdown on a 3 yard run. Defensive stand outs were Dale Welch, Monte Cassidy, Butch Begley and Barry Buckwalter.

Palmyra 19 Macon 12
Palmyra played Macon after not playing them for 15 or 20 years. Gary Stuhlman was the leading ground gainer and scored one touchdown on an 8 yard run. Eddie Hess scored on two passes of 34 and 10 yards. Our ground game was aided by the fine blocking of Jan Donelson and Gary French. On Defense, Gary Sublette, Monte Cassidy and Joe Thornburg led the way to victory.

Palmyra 6 Centralia 16
Palmyra made the long trip to Centralia and came out on the short end of the score. Palmyra did not start playing good football until the fourth quarter. We had 3 chances to score but could only cross the goal line once. That was by a pass from Heimer to Hess. On defense, the leaders were Gary Sublette, Steve Gottman, Monte Cassidy, Barry Buckwalter, Jan Donelson, and Darrell Silvers.

The 1970 Freshman football team has a 2-3 record. It was a very small team in number, but it had a lot of spirit. The offense was led by quarterback Gary Johnson, the running of Boyd Baker, Jeff Devlin, and David Smerek, and pass catching of Otis Crane and Marty Singleton. The defense was led by linebacker Rodney Heimer. Other members of the important defensive and offensive lines were: tackles, David French and Mike Hirner; guards George Glascock and Joe Taylor. George Crane and Greg Kroeger were also team members.

They Shoot Baskets, Don't They?

Basketball practice began for the full squad on November 9, 1970 with some 25 boys reporting. We had four lettermen back--Jan Donelson, Danny Meyers, Bobby Heimer, and Ronnie Tyler. Only Tyler had been exposed to a full season of varsity play. Heimer and Meyers had seen a lot of duty toward the end of the year, and Donelson had seen only limited duty.

The early prospects were good, with Tyler 6'4'', Heimer 5'11'', Meyers 5'11'', and David Kroeger 6'. We needed the ball control man in front, and Tommy Gottman seemed to have the best shot at this, as he was fast and could handle the ball fairly well. We also had Terry Bogener, a freshman who could play either guard or forward. Brownie Rothweiler was a good shooter and could handle the ball well. We had Jan Donelson, 6'2'' who was to play behind Tyler and then we had two boys up from the junior class who had little experience, but a lot of desire--Mike Smith and Jim Gottman. Then the last of our varsity boys was Jeff Johns, a 5'10'' sophomore who needed experience.

Our inexperience was to cost us several games, such as the Barry, Illinois game here in Palmyra, when, with 34 seconds to play, we had a four-point lead and lost by 6 points in an overtime. But we got tougher as we went along. Determination, confidence, and overall improvement kept us in every game. The largest defeat we suffered was by twelve points, when we lost at Centralia 51-63.

In our 17th game at West Pike High School, we lost 60-52, and our record was 9-8. Then we hit our stride. The Palmyra Tournament was ours when we beat Paris 78-64. Then we won five more games before losing to Kahoka 57-61. Our final season record was 17 wins, 9 losses.

A great deal could be said about this team. They could score ten points in a minute and did it a few times. (Against Monroe, down 3 points at the halftime, they went 7 points ahead of Monroe in a minute.) They are young and will certainly be contenders FOR IT ALL next year!

The Palmyra Pantherettes closed the 1970-71 season with a record of six wins and twelve losses.

Although their record was not an impressive one, this was still the highest win total for the past eight years. The girls finished strongly with four wins out of their last eight games.

Offensively the Pantherettes averaged 33.7 points per game while their opponents averaged 39.1. Inability to hit the basket cost the girls several games. Sheree Menger was the most consistent shooter as she made 227 points for an average of 13.5 per game.

Three senior starters will be missed greatly. They are playmaker, Karen Lake, set-shot artist, Joyce Dodd, and steady guard, Gail Hallgren.

Individual awards voted by the members of the team are as follows: Most Valuable Player, Sheree Menger; Best Guard, Gail Hallgren; Best Attitude, Gail Hallgren; Best Rover, a tie between Karen Lake and Joyce Dodd; Most Improved Player, a tie between Sheree Menger and Nancy Bringer.

Team statistics showed Sherre Menger as best offensive rebounder, best total rebounder and best freethrow shooter: Gail Hallgren was best defensive rebounder.

Highlights of the year are as follows: (1) Moving out of the all-purpose room to the high school P.E. gym. (2) Beating long time Nemesis, Philadelphia, three times. (3) Upsetting Monroe City on their home floor after they had beaten us three times previously. (4) Improving over twenty points a game from the previous year.
